

Hotel la Torre

Identity for a design hotel in the Dolomites, Italy. The restored tuff tower of the ancient building, "torre" in Italian, and landmark of the village, is stylized into a very graphic, constructivist shape recalling the style of this luxury hotel. Thanks to the laser cut reproduction of the logo, the identity is developed in a way that it plays with light, recalling the feeling given by the architectural structure itself.